

Texas Junior Angus Association Rookie of the Year Award

The TJAA Rookie of the Year Award is open to a first or second year TJAA member who is 13 years old or younger that has done an outstanding job in the TJAA. The recipient is announced at the annual banquet in Fort Worth. The "Rookie" recipient receives a $250 certificate toward the purchase of any Angus heifer bred and sold in Texas; the seller must be a Texas Angus breeder and the winner will be asked to exhibit their purchased heifer the following summer at the TJAA sponsored state show.

Completed applications must be submitted to the designated TJAA Advisor prior to the beginning of the annual business meeting held during the Fort Worth Stock Show.

Application Procedure:

Answer the following questions and staple behind this cover sheet. Submit three copies for review.

1. Tell about your involvement in the Texas Junior Angus Association.
Examples: state show, educational contests, meetings, banquet, committees, offices held, etc.
2. Tell about your involvement in the National Junior Angus Association Activities.
Examples: national or regional shows, participation in educational contests above the state level, bronze/silver recognition awards, assist fellow juniors in any way, etc.
3. Tell about your involvement in your local 4-H or FFA organizations.
Do you hold any offices or serve on any committees?
4. It is important to be involved in your community. Tell about any activities that you may be involved in either individually or with a group, such as scouts, church, 4-H, etc.
How do you serve your community? What are your volunteer activities?
5. Other information about your family that you would like to share with the review committee.
What activities do you do with your family? How do you help out at home?
